To the greatest of all arts

*Our smiling

*Why, Manon,

A letter—at last

“..... a portrait of QUEENS”

A picture of our life at Queens would be composed of many things—friendly faces everywhere—new people—getting back into the swing of things—last minute dashes to class—bull sessions late at night—trips to the library and term papers—class spirit—meetings, meetings everywhere. In our portrait of a year at Queens we have tried to catch the spirit of these days in which we are learning the greatest of all arts—the art of living.

Administration

Our administrative officers are always ready to help with the problems or to share the happiness of each student at Queens. Their tactful and patient guidance and sincere interest in Queens are invaluable to all of us.

Dr. Blakely and his contagious optimism are well known on our campus. His dream of a greater Queens is beginning to materialize and will soon be as real to us as it has been to him.

Adding perspective to the picture

“A Senior’s pride . . . at last”

The time we’ve waited for and worked for is here
we’re big wheels on the campus now—presiding at meetings making plans for the future—fishing in Diana at stunt night enjoying many things for the last time together—putting the final touches on the portrait of our life at Queens.

Moving Forward with the South

The production of better type fabrics has grown to tremendous proportions in the South. Paralleling this outstanding progress made by the textile industry has been the resultant higher standard of living.

Burlington Mills is proud to be a part of this progress . . . proud of the fact that this Company has invested millions of dollars in the future of the South. By ever-expanding its own production, Burlington is contributing to the rapid increase in business activity—the yardstick of prosperity. For economic stability, Burlington maintains a program of financial soundness, reflected in its net worth of over $100,000,000.

Through this extensive program for economic progress, Burlington Mills' 83 plants have been able to produce the best possible products at the lowest possible prices. These quality fabrics are truly "woven in the life of America." That's why over 28,000 employees are going forward with Burlington Mills.

KING'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

ESTABLISHED IN 1901

Kings Business College was founded in 1901 and has grown to be one of the largest and most popular schools in the Carolinas. A large school can afford better equipment, a large, better-qualified corps of teachers, and is able to provide a better employment service.

WELL KNOWN TO BUSINESS FIRMS

Completion standards in KING'S are high, placing the graduate above the rank and file of ordinary business school graduates. Because of age and long service, KING'S is widely and favorably known to business firms in the South, especially in the Carolinas, where thousands of graduates are serving in high positions.

NATIONALLY ACCREDITED APPROVED SCHOOL

King's Business College of Charlotte is fully accredited by the National Association of Accredited Commercial Schools, a member of the National Council of Business Schools and the North Carolina Association of Commercial Schools.

ATTEND A GOOD SCHOOL

Preparation for your business career is so vital a matter that the selection of the school should be made only after a most thorough investigation. KING'S maintains high standards, and invites your consideration on the basis of the kind of training which will qualify you for a superior position.
